

Allen Cliffe's Will (1687?)

Dfl ( deferral?) The will of Alan Cliffe Esq of Gt Witley ( without date) .....1687 3rd year of James II being aged but of sound mind.....to his wife Grace Cliffe .....and rooms at Witley..to his nephew Allan C ..... and to his two daughters Mary and Grace..... to his nephew William and his wife, to his sister Elizabeth Alderney....To his kinsman Mr Walter Walsh and wife..... to his cousin Catherine Pytts ,To his cousin Henry Cliffe and wife.... to his cousin John Yates and his wife and Ann Cliffe Sister of John to his cousin John Addenbrooke and his wife..... to his cousin John Cliffe and wife and Ann Cliffe sister of John, to his cousin John Alderne ....to his cousin Elizabeth Turner, to his cousins Letitia Ball and Richard Cliffe of London and Joseph Cliffe and his wife and Edward Allen and his wife and WilliamBanks of London..... appoints his nephew Alan son of his brother Humphrey Cliffe executor and residual legatee (Excepting the manner of Crawley and the mainland and the woods and coppice then lately purchased and settled by indenture of the same date as this)

I.	I.	I
Allan Cliffe= Grace (aged) Will dated 1687. Testator sen Astley Late of Shrawley. 1699. Description of Arms	Humphrey Cliffe. brother of Allan C       	Elizabeth Alderne sister Alive 1687

I	I
Allan Cliffe =. Nephew & Executor & Residual Legatee 1687 	William Cliffe = Alive in 1687

I.	I	I
Allen C Junr. Son and heir apparent of Astley 1699	Mary C. Alive 1687.	Grace C Alive 1687