

The (.....) will of JOHN COOKE of Shrawley

A Will (.....)

In the of yoe Amon October 10th 1615 John Cooke of Nicolls in the parish of Shrawley and in the County of Worcester yeoman being sicke in body but of sound mind and perfect rememberance thus made and institutture this will and testament in manner and forme following that is to say the 10th day of October in the year of our Lord 1615, being Af(...)by James Seaverne alias Senkin how hee thinkth upon his (...) and (....) and how he would (...) of his goods hee (...) that hee give his goods unto them to bee governed amongst them.

Witnessess

James Seaverne

Giles Stone

them and there person

28th October 1615